Dear Ms Donnelly

Notification of Intent

I am writing to advise that Central Coast Council intends to apply for a special variation in 2022–23. Our previous letter in relation to an application dated 28 September 2021 has been superseded by this Notification of Intent, this change follows notification from your office on the appropriate instrument on 23 November 2021.

Type of Application

Section 508(2) of the Local Government Act 1993 – Application for a special variation to the general income.

The percentage amount of the intended Special Rate Variation

The effect of the special variation would be to maintain the 15% increase (including the rate peg) in general income for 2021-22, under the council's existing special variation, until 2031-32.

The purpose of the funds for the special variation

The purpose for the funds being sought under the proposed Special Rate Variation application is the improvement of Council's financial sustainability

Contact details for the application
