

Certification of the Register of Gift of Government Property

The accountable authority for IPART is the Chair of the Tribunal

Each year, the Register of Gifts is required to be reviewed and certified in accordance with TD20-01 (para 4) and tabled at the Audit and Review Committee at least once a year.

The accountable authority is to cause a current copy to be published on the agency's website, para 6 of TD20-01.

The certifications each year are as follows

Year	Dated	CEO certified	Signed by Accountable Authority (approval for website)
2020	14-Jan-21	Liz Livingstone, Chief Executive Officer	Paul Paterson, Chair Tribunal
2021	24-Feb-22	Liz Livingstone, Chief Executive Officer	Carmel Donnelly, Chair Tribunal
2022	21-Feb-23	Liz Livingstone, Chief Executive Officer	Carmel Donnelly, Chair Tribunal
2023
2024
2025
2026
2027
2028
2029

REGISTER for Government Property Gifts

Reporting requirement: To be submitted to the Audit and Risk committee at least once every financial year [TD20-01.3(2)]

<https://www.treasury.nsw.gov.au/sites/default/files/2020-02/TD20-01%20Gifts%20of%20government%20property.pdf>

Date of receipt of the gift	Name of individual who gifted the property	Description of gift	Estimated $	Basis of estimate	Recipient of gift	Reason for the gift

Nil