I wish to oppose the drastic rate increase as proposed by this council.

This merger was always doomed to fail as the towns had no common thread, far too distant of each other and should never have happened. To compound the problem by appointing non elected administrators

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] was an insult to those who had worked so hard to make this the council it was.

To now find the need to increase rates by such a huge amount to continue to fund this white elephant is just more pain and suffering to the ratepayers.

The ratepayers were ignored by [REDACTED] who set this disaster in motion achieving none of the savings they stated and in fact as a result council may soon become insolvent. [REDACTED]
