

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Sunday, July 12, 2015

Submission: I believe that the City of Sydney is doing a fantastic job and that a larger council would not be beneficial as it would no longer represent local concerns but need to take in to account many more diverse interests and concerns. That is what we have the State Government for, to manage the bigger picture. If one starts enlarging the councils there might be an argument for getting rid of the State Government.