

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Wednesday, 13 February 2019

Submission: As rate payers in Lithgow we already pay very high rates for the land values. Thousands of jobs have been lost in Lithgow over the last 5 years and many families are impacted by this and already struggling to pay existing rates. I believe that many families will struggle even more with such a significant increase.