Central Coast Council through it's mismanagement are now asking residents to pay for their infrastructure which should have been thought about before the amalgamation. they have increased rates, to pay for their [REDACTED] mismanagement and now water rates. We haven't seen any improvements to services, just a [REDACTED] that is on more than the Premier of NSW, water services renewal and/or replacement depends on the rate rise, how dare they ask for an increase, get rid of the [REDACTED] who put us in this mess, then maybe ratepayers might have a chance to be represented by honest hardworking executives.
