

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Saturday, July 25, 2015

Submission: I do not support such a large council area. I do support reducing the number of council areas but I feel the city of Sydney area is already at about the right size. I think the area could grow slightly but not incorporating a whole adjacent council area. I think it would be more appropriate that woollahra and Waverley amalgamate with part of rand wick council and the southern part of randwick council amalgomate with botany.