

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Wednesday, 28 February 2018

Submission: I object to any increase to rates that is more than inflation. The council has sought the special variation to support new projects (such as a new indoor sports centre and gymnasium at Heffron Park along with an arts and cultural centre somewhere?). I am unsure how these will benefit the community. There are already very well established privately run gyms in the eastern suburbs and I struggle to see how a new community centre will benefit anyone but a select few.