

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 5 March 2018

Submission: We are paying enough for rates at the moment, if this increases you will have a lot of families not being able to pay as we are already struggling to pay for electricity and other bills. I don't see any area where our rates are being used to the advantage of the community.