

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Tuesday, 5 March 2019

Submission: I am against this 'special variation rate rise' no project the Council has proposed affects my husband and I enough to justify this ridiculous rate rise. We are a young professional couple with no children and feel like the projects proposed benefit families, so not only are we slogged the most tax wise now we'll be slogged even more for rates.