

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Tuesday, 6 March 2018

Submission: We have lost all concessions for our rates as our pension was cut out as we were just over the border line..we are struggling to pay our rates now let alone an increase of such high proportion. If you do increase rates perhaps you could consider giving concessions to seniors over 65 who have recently lost their pension. My husband is a Vietnam vet and worked hard to raise a respectful family and now we get nothing in return...shame