Submission: No! We pay too much as it is! Maybe they should budget or allocate funds better or even take a pay cut?! I understand that they need funds to develop areas and keep things in working order/ good condition etc but maybe they could do fundraisers or ask for sponsorships etc to raise the money for certain things. Seems to be a lot of wasted money - i.e the blue horse. I like it and I think it's great but money could be better spent else where - just an example.
