What a fail having to increase the rates by more than 50%. We're on a pension, so fixed income which will make the increased payment difficult. The councils are too far apart making it seem that there is double all of the administrative staff required for both areas. The merger of these two councils doesn't make sense geographically speaking either. You need to leave Cootamundra and then travel down the main highway to get to Gundagai. The merge should be reconsidered!
