

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 8 March 2019

Submission: It's a huge increase. Too high for most people. Businesses are already absorbing cost increases from every direction. Households & small businesses are already struggling enough. Not to mention the spend wastage everyday from this council all you have to do is drive around town to see examples of money mismanagement. The projects they are proposing to fast track with the rate increase funds are not urgent & certainly do not justify putting residents & businesses under further stress.