

Author name: D. Murray

Date of submission: Sunday, 24 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

I strongly disagree that price increases are justified and finding it difficult to pay already being a pensioner. Unless there is a improvement which is tangible with out the hype of better water quality and future service reliability (Im only taking Sydney Waters word for that) I am totally against any increases unless my pension is adjusted according to any increase. Thank You.