

Author name: D. Park

Date of submission: Friday, 1 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

If we are going to have 300,000 new homes connecting to the water supply, why can't THEY pay for it? Why do people who have been paying for their connection for decades need to supplement these new constructions? Get the money for the installation from the developers, not from the rest of Sydney, who gain no benefits like brand new pipes.