

Author name: E. Harper

Date of submission: Friday, 30 June 2017

Submission: Most of the people in this town are pensioners or low income & will now have to find money for this increase, keeping in mind that the majority of rate payers did not want this amalgamation & were told there would be no rate increase but were fearful that amalgamation would bring increase's looks like their fears are to be realised, once again stabbed in the back by those in control□