

Author name: F. Minas

Date of submission: Thursday, 7 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

in a cost of living crisis this is the last thing i expected service has not been improved or quality changed of the water supply if the price hike was for new dams or to connect the city to the central nsw then i could understand the need to increase prices but the same infrastructure is in place and no new major work is being planned