

Author name: H. Robinson

Date of submission: Tuesday, July 14, 2015

Submission: I do not think that merging councils as proposed is beneficial. The City of Sydney is working well as it is. Amalgamation is costly, will be a lot of work and there is no evidence that a larger council will be cheaper or have better management.