

Author name: K. Halpin

Date of submission: Tuesday, July 21, 2015

Submission: Bigger isn't better. I want Leichhardt Council to remain a standalone council.

My reason for this are Leichhardt Council is the third most financially sustainable council in Sydney. The ranking comes from the operating performance ratio, which the NSW treasury corp. regards as a core measure of financial sustainability.

Merging Leichhardt with any combination of the six inner west councils would lower this ranking and certainly not improve the situation for anyone living in the Leichhardt Council area.