

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Friday, 1 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

We cannot afford to have anymore price rises for things let alone water. The government needs to help people by stopping the price rise and end the inflation problems not making it worse. Otherwise the government is failing the people and would be voted out and taken to court for this. The investment needed should be funded by efficiency savings or spending cuts elsewhere or by Sydney water.