

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Saturday, 9 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

Considering Sydney Water has failed to join with Council in a comprehensive stormwater management plan and failed to provide necessary infrastructure for our area (Figtree) as it has developed so rapidly- I dont think any price rise should be approved by IPART. We need storm water management plans in place and adequate infrastructure not price hike that no one can afford .