

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Thursday, 10 October 2024

Your submission for this review:

The original Sydney Water proposal is one of the few good things planned in this region. iPart should approve the full cost of the Sydney Water scheme. The Aerotropilis will generate an unbelievable volume of hardstand surface in our region - square kilometers of it in South Creek catchment. We should support the full reuse program, not a reduced cost that compromises the outcomes for Western Sydney and our waterways.