

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Friday, 2 February 2024

Your submission for this review:

Sydney Water has both maintain pricing and provided a reasonable service at the price. At this price point some improvement is possible but not a lot. Though individual incidents can be pointed to where Sydney water has failed, miserably at times, when viewed under the whole service they provide, fades into insignificance. With that I would like to support the renewal. I am against any privatization whole or partial.