

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Friday, 19 January 2024

Your submission for this review:

i believe if people were made to pay their fare the income to government would be a lot higher thus fare increases would not be required. too many people jump on the bus not even attempting to pay fare and this must surely impact the profitability of some bus routes and screw up the actual numbers of people using the bus routes. Make people pay and don't increase fares for pensioners.