

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Friday, 28 February 2025

Your submission for this review:

Energy rates have increased and continue to increase whereas feed-in rates are stagnant at $0.05 per KWh. Maintenance and repair cost for solar panels and associated Electronic components have increased also so why not the Feed-in rates. There's inflation everywhere not just for Energy supply companies