

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Tuesday, 5 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

This is extortionate and an abuse of monopoly power. There is no other provider I can go to. Infrastructure works should be funded by the state government, and it's plain wrong to force the cost of new connections on existing households.