

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Tuesday, 5 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

Water is too cheap and a price increase is therefore supported to incentivise responsible use. However, Sydney water has a history of pricing recycled water at a price higher than potable water or to discourage recycled / reuse water solutions. My submission therefore encourages Sydney Water to shift its revenue model to a sustainable development avoid, use, reuse water model.