

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Friday, 8 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

For prices to increase by 18%, then 7% per year there after until 2030 is crazy! There is currently cost of living crisis, this will clearly lead to people suffering a basic human right, which is water. I understand and 100% support the conservative use of water but these price rises are drastic. If Sydney Water is at that much of a deficit the State Government clearly has to step in with some funding.