

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Friday, 8 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

The public is so tired of hearing large corporations like Sydney water and price increases. When will we hear about efficiencies that need to be made in these organisations? There is no appetite to drive efficiencies starting at the top management down to the bottom. Just simply saying that you need more money is not a solution.