

Author name: j. madden

Date of submission: 24 July 2015

Submission:

There is no good reason to amalgamate council, please read and make your protest. Again the major parties are trying to change the playing field so that they can win control council, thus freeing them of the disruptive independent Clover Moore who does a great job of keeping the bastards honest! State Government policy to screw our local councils smells like bad developer interests to me!