

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Sunday, 5 November 2023

Your submission for this review:

The funding system for community based preschools is unnecessarily complex. It seems to change every year and no one ever gets enough notice in advance of what the changes are. The parents of the children attending community based preschools feel they dont get the full benefits of preschool due to the funding system.