TIM MOORE (LOCAL GOVERNMENT CONTRIBUTIONS PLANS COMMITTEE MEMBER)

Date	Disclosure made	Relevant Tribunal duties	Management action	Reasons
15 September 2022 (updated 16 February 2023)	Mr Moore was previously engaged by Blacktown Council to provide planning services between February 2022 and August 2022.	Assessing parts of Contributions Plans to be submitted by Blacktown Council	Mr Moore was not exercising his functions in relation to (and not receive briefings for) reviews of contributions plans submitted by Blacktown Council. Updated management action from 16 February 2023: no further action required, as Mr Moore is no longer engaged by Blacktown Council	Mr Moore exercising his functions in relation to parts of Blacktown Council's contributions plans when he provided planning services for the Council could be a conflict of interest. It could also result in him having access to information in exercising one function that may be relevant to his other function. Carrying out both functions could also be perceived as a conflict of interest. These management actions will avoid the conflicts of interest.
