1 The purpose and status of this reporting manual

This Reporting Manual and other Reporting Manuals are issued by IPART. IPART will review and amend these Reporting Manuals from time to time.

Licence conditions for the licensed Electricity Network Operators (ENOs) require that the licence holder complies with any Reporting Manuals issued by the Tribunal.¹ Although no regulatory requirement to comply with a Reporting Manual exists for non-licensed ENOs, IPART expects that all ENOs will comply with the Reporting Manuals where applicable to their specific reporting obligations. Each document may not apply to all ENOs, and this is specified where relevant.

The reporting requirements specified in these Reporting Manuals do not replace any requirements identified in licence conditions, legislation, statutory instruments or codes that apply to ENOs. Compliance with Reporting Manuals is required in addition to, not in substitution for, compliance with other applicable obligations.

The information gathered through the reporting arrangements outlined in this document will allow IPART to:

- ▼ determine whether ENOs are consistently and effectively meeting statutory obligations,
- ▼ identify immediate risks and long term trends, and
- ▼ identify trends that signify emerging issues across the industry with a view to developing safety measures or supporting industry safety initiatives where appropriate.

A review of the reporting requirements will be conducted periodically to accommodate any changes to statutory requirements and licence conditions.

IPART has also issued Audit Guidelines to guide networks on how to maintain compliance with their obligations.

2 Quarterly reporting requirements for reliability and performance standards

Licence holders are required to report quarterly against the ministerially-imposed reliability and performance licence conditions. These reporting requirements apply to Ausgrid, Endeavour Energy and Essential Energy; and cover:

- ▼ network overall reliability standards
- ▼ individual feeder standards, and
- ▼ customer service standards.

Quarterly reliability and performance reports are due to IPART within one month of the end of each quarter, and Essential Energy is also required to submit a copy to the Minister.

Table 2.1 lists the reliability licence conditions that set the content of the quarterly reports. This have been categorised per licence holder.

2.1 How to lodge a quarterly standards report

Unless otherwise stated, information or notification provided to IPART should be lodged electronically via energy@ipart.nsw.gov.au, and addressed to Director, Energy Networks Regulation.

2.2 Information on reliability and performance audits

The licence holder's performance against the reliability and performance standards must be independently audited after the end of each financial year, with the audit report due to IPART by 30 September.² Essential Energy is required, under the DNSP licence conditions, to also provide a copy of the audit report to the Minister by this date. Further information on reliability and performance audits can be found in IPART's Electricity Network Audit Guidelines.
