

Author name: L. Craig

Date of submission: Tuesday, 8 May 2018

Submission: It is not right that the government can take away what they promised. We used our hard earned dollars to install solar in the understanding that we would be paid back the sum that was stated. We depend on this as pensioners and expect the government to keep their word, not to break their promises yet again.