

"Transmission Optimisation Modelling Program" – Disclaimer

The IPART "Transmission Optimisation Modelling Program" (referred to in this disclaimer as the Program) has been made available as a guidance tool only, free of charge, solely subject, and by downloading the Program you agree, to the following conditions:

1. The Program is a guidance tool only and is not intended to constitute legal or professional advice. Users should obtain appropriate professional advice relevant to their circumstances. The Program is not intended to indicate that the user or any entity is legally compliant or that any information inputted into the Program by users is accurate.
2. Download or use of the Program does not assign, and no user may assert ownership of, all or any part of, any intellectual property rights in the Program. While the Program may be used for users' internal business purposes, it may not be modified, merged, translated, reverse compiled or reverse engineered.
3. Access to and use of the Program is entirely at the risk of the user. Users must take their own precautions to ensure that the process which they employ for accessing the Program does not expose them to the risk of viruses, malicious computer code or other forms of interference which may damage their computer system or the computer system of others. IPART does not accept responsibility for any interference or damage to computer systems which arises in connection with use of the Program.
4. The user must test and confirm that the Program is suitable for the user's purposes and must exercise its own independent judgment about the user's competency and the competency of its employees and contractors to use the Program.
5. IPART disclaims and excludes all liability (including, without limitation, liability and negligence) for all direct, indirect, economic, special or consequential loss, harm, cost, expense (including legal fees) or damage any person may suffer or incur arising out of or in any way connected with the use of the Program (including, without limitation, loss of profits, downtime costs, loss under or in relation to contract, loss of data or loss of use).
6. This disclaimer does not attempt or purport to exclude liability arising under statute or common law if, and to the extent, such liability cannot be lawfully excluded. To the extent permitted by law, all conditions, warranties, guarantees, rights, remedies, liabilities of any kind and other terms implied or conferred by statute, custom or the general law that impose any liability or obligation on IPART are expressly excluded under these terms and conditions, including as to the performance, reliability, adequacy, accuracy or completeness of the Program (and any information conveyed by, or contained within, the Program), or its suitability for use or fitness for any purpose.
