

Hello,

Please suggest that prices for cityrail tickets should not be increased, as the Victorian train tickets are not high.

Already, it is expensive for a commuter say (Monday to Friday-off peak): travelling from Holsworthy to the City $9.20 or at Liverpool ($9.90)

Please take into consideration that sometimes there is trackwork and will frustrate commuters, as well as less services after 9am and on the weekend.

Kind Regards