

The only way I would appreciate an increase is that their needs to be more options of paying for your ticket. Credit Card, via the internet etc. My station at Coniston hasn't got enough ticket machines and you can not read the display on it. Black on grey display. How about on the half yearly have an extra discounted fares like the sales in the shops to bring back commuter confidence. Transit officers are not evident on the train services.

Darren Kirwood